

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED WILHELM II. ABDICATES

THRONE RENOUNCED BY EMPEROR WILLIAM

Both Associated Press and International News Service Carry Official Report of Abdication of Hun Ruler—Announcement of Event Made in French Chamber of Deputies-Paris Gives News as From Berlin.

(Associated Press)

Paris, Nov. 9.—(6:15 p.m.)—The abdication of Emperor William is officially announced from Berlin, according to a Hayas dispatch from Basel.

The Havas agency, which transmits the announcement of Emperor William's abdication from Basel, is the semi-official French London, Nov. 9. — (I. N. S.) — An Amsterdam dispatch to the Times today stated that the German kaiser had abdicated.

At the same time an Amsterdam dispatch to a news agency here stated that the kaiser had refused to abdicate.

ANNOUNCED IN PARIS.

Paris, Nov. 9. — (5:30 p.m.) — (I. N. S.) — The kaiser has abdicated, according to an official announcement made in the chamber of deputies. The German ruler renounced his throne today.

Prince Max Issues Decree.

London, Nov. 9 .- (British Wireless Service.) - A German wireless message received in London this afternoon states:

"The German imperial chancellor, Prince Maximilian of Baden, has issued the following decree:

"The kaiser and king has decided to renounce the throne. Chancellor Holds Reins. "'The imperial chancellor will remain in office until questions connected with the abdication of the kaiser, the renouncing by the crown prince of the throne of the German empire and of Prussia and the setting up of a regency have been settled."

Appointment for Regency.

For the regency he intends to appoint Deputy Ebert as imperial chancellor and he proposes that a bill shall be brought in for the establishment of a law providing for the immediate promulgation of general suffrage and for a constitutional German national assembly, which will settle finally the future for the government of the German nation and for those peoples who might be desirous of coming within the empire. "Berlin, Nov. 8, 1918.

"The imperial chancellor."

Son-in-Law Also Abdicates. London, Nov. 9 .- (British wireless service.)-(A. P.)-A telegram received at Copenhagen from Brunswick by way of Berlin asserts that Emperor William's son-in-law, the duke of Brunswick, and his successor have abdicated. British Wireless Text.

London.-British wireless gives official German text that kalser has decided to renounce throne.

Kurt Eisner Leads.

Paris, Nov. 9.—(A. P.)—Kurt Eisner, a Munich newspaper man and promi-nent in socialist circles, is the leader of the revolution which has broken out in the Bavarian capital, it appears from information received here. Some reports designate him as president of the Bavarian republic, which has been

Eisner, the dispatch adds, has organized a committee consisting of workingmen, soldiers and peasants, in many respects similar to the Russian Spreads to Other Cities. The uprising in northwestern many, according to the only news from Germany early today, is re-ported to have spread to Hanover, Ol-denburg and other cities. Generally the revolt is not attended by serious

Reports from the Danish border today from Vandrup say that everything is quiet in Schleswig, but that further disturbances are reported to have occurred in Hamburg.

Cases of Insubordination.

Amsterdam, Nov. 9.—(A. P.)—Cases of Insubordination occurred Wednesday among the troops of a German naval division quartered at Lokeren, twelve miles northeast of Ghent, according to a report from Sas-Van-Gent.

Railroad Strike.

Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—(I. N. S.)—Ageneral railway strike has been called in Germany, according to a dispatch to the Social Demokraten today.

The dispatch said that there are 200,000 deserters in Berlin.

Resignation Not Accepted.
Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—Emperor William has not accepted the resignation of Prince Maximilian of Baden, the German chancellor, according to a Berlin message today. The emperor, who had been thoroughly informed by the chancellor regarding the general situation, the message adds, has asked Prince Maximilian to continue holding the office provisionally until the emperor's final decision is reached.

Twenty-eight Killed.

Copenhagen, Nov. 9.—(I. N. S.)—
Twenty-eight persons have been killed in riots at Kiel, according to information from Berlin today.

Conditions in Berlin were said to be unchanged, with the industries going on as usual.

TOUCH HIGHEST MARK. Despite the enormous amoun

bonds and war savings stamps,

Chattanooga bank deposits touched a new mark on the call issued Nov. 1, the total of the six banks reaching $38,151,806. PARIS CONFIDENT OF

GERMANY'S SURRENDER ARMISTICE OR INVASION

ALTERNATIVE FOR FOE.

Details as to Internal Revolt Accepted as Neither Fictitious Nor Superficial. Paris, Nov. 9.—(5:45 a.m.)—Germany will capitulate between now and Mon-

As a constrained and conservative, is unanimous in this view.

There is no tendency to exaggerate happenings in Germany, but it is felt that the Germans have had enough to the constraint of th make it imperative for the government to make peace at the earliest possible M. Copies, writing in the Figaro, fairly sums up the views of all editorial writers when he says:

"The details of revolutionary movements in Germany are lacking, but we learn enough from hour to hour to feel cial nor fictitious. Do they contain deep-set revolution? Are they but riots due to the reaction of defeat? What authority does the republic proclaimed at Munich possess? These are questions which concern Germany

While Germany is reflecting on the allies' terms, Marshal Foch continues his blows without intermission. The German army may break at any moment. There were signs of a new retreat from the Scheldt yesterday, and the French are along the Meuse over a front of fifteen miles. The alternative for Germany now is armistice or

TRY DELAYING TACTICS

French Forces, However, Push On to Belgian Line. With the French armies in France. Nov. 9.—(2:30 p.m.)—(A. P.)—The French forces today continued their push toward the Belgian frontier, with push toward the Beigian frontier, with the Germans persisting in their de-laying tactics of the last few days. The Germans used artillery and ma-chine gun fire at points where they needed more time to break contact with the French.

with the French.

At other places on the front the progress of the French was maintained with undiminished speed. Nothing but the prompt signing of the armistice will prevent the allies from entirely clearing French territory of enemy troops before the peace negotiations begin.

Outbreak in Altona."

Four thousand men attempted to overthrow the military authorities in Altona, across the Elbe from Hamburg, but the city now is quiet. The German guards at the Danish border have been ordered by the soldiers' councils to remain at their posts temporabile.

The ex-eemperor surroun ded by his family, the crown prince on the left and the empress on the right.

VAIN EFFORT TO CHECK ADVANCE

Twenty-Two German Divisions Thrown Into Savage Battle on Meuse.

Nine Miles From Mezieres, Vital Railway Junction.

(By Bert Ford.) With the American Army North of Verdun, Nov. 7.-(Delayed.)-(I. N. S.) -Twenty-two German divisions (264,-000 men), have been thrown 'nto the savage battle on the Meuse river in a vain effort to check the rapid advance of the Americans. The Yanks started the seventh day of their new drive less than four miles south of the historic city of ledan, while the French were only slightly less than five miles away and are both driving ahead in a northeasterly direction. (Since Mr. Ford's cablegram was Americans have captured the western

The glare from the burning ities of Sedan and Mouzon lighted the way for the advance of the khaki and horizon blue columns during the night.

The Franco-American forces today were less than nine miles from 'le-zieres, a vital railway junction behind he German front.

The American advance yesterday east of the Meuse river has reached a depth of nearly three miles, which was a brilliant exploit considering the difficult character of the terrain and

Two fresh divisions, were thrown into the battle on that ride of the river which is an index of the nan's desperation. The Americans have maintained a continuous advance, driving across fortified woods, hills and canals, and past the snaky bends of the Meuse river. Marshes were encountered and At dusk yesterday the Yanks reached the western outskirts of Mouzon, which was in flames. The left flank reached Connage.

The enemy's supreme task today was the holding of the heights of the Meuse, which he had retained since Renewed Advance. The American troops east of the Meuse river renewed their advance today, progressing north of Danvillers in the face of machine gun resistance. There was sharp machine gun and artillery activity along the Meuse dur-ing the night in the region of Sezey and Wadelincourt.

TEXAS FLOOD SPREADING

Thousands of Acres Under Water—Unpicked Cotton Ruined.
Dallas, Tex., Nov. 9.—With thousands of acres of land under water, railway bridges washed out and railway schedules disarranged, the flood waters of the Trinity river today were still spreading over the low lands of Dallas county, with indications that a crest of forty feet would be reached late today, according to the United German guards at the Danish border have been ordered by the soldiers councils to remain at their posts temporarily.

Travelers arriving from Germany report that the disaffection apparently is ported.

The property loss will be heavy, report that the Minth army corps, which was recruited in Schleswig-Holsteir.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REVIEW

GLARE OF BURNING CITIES crossed the river on a nine-mile front north of Tournai.

Gen. Petain's armies, which hold the center of the allied ad-Franco-Americans Less Than vance, continue their march toward the Belgian frontier south of Maubeuge. The French have driven the Germans from nearly all the natural defenses west of the Franco-Belgian border, and, if word. The Germans were prepared by the natural defenses west of the last two days, the French stipulations, as a whole, but hearing should reach the frontier at some points before nightfull. should reach the frontier at some points before nightfall.

East of the Meuse, on the allied right, the American troops are drawning toward Montmedy and the Briey iron fields. The for- of the German defeat. ward movement is on a front north and south of Damvillers. Farther north, toward Sedan, there has been only artillery and machine gun fighting.

Reports from Germany are that the revolutionary movements continue to spread, especially in the northwest.

Emperor William, while refusing to abdicate, also has asked Prince Maximilian, the chancellor, to retain office until the emperor reaches a decision on his future course. Apparently the emperor fears the reaction which might result should the chancellor be perfiled, it has been announced that the mitted to resign while the armistice conditions are under consideration and the government be left without a head.

Germany's answer to the allied terms sion now at Marshal Foch's headquarters may receive instructions by wire-ters may receive instructions by wire-less.

Few details of the terms have been divulged, nor have any of the dramatic cenes at the allied commander-inchief's headquarters been reported Nothing but the briefest dispatches have told of an event the consequences of which will affect the whole subse-quent history of civilization.

America was represented at the meeting by Vice-Admiral William Sims.

In the meantime, the allied armies are grimly sticking to their task of driving the foe from the soil of France. No one can exactly locate the line where the contending armies are fightweether of the known, however, that ing today. It is known, however, that the French have reached Mezieres and that the British have captured Avesnes. It is probable that the Germans hold a strip of French soil not over six or seven miles in width from east of Valenciennes to the south bank of the Moselle river.

Farther south the line runs along the frontier, but is nowhere more than a coupic of miles west of Germany's dothe allied armies to complete their triumph over the enemy may bring about a quick decision by the military chiefs of Germany. Emperor William beria seems to be broken ecceptive. chiefs of Germany. Emperor William is at Spa, it is said, and it is considered possible that the armistice inisreach Marshal Foch's headquarters until the middle of this (Saturday) afternoon at the very earliest. The courier left for Spa, the German head-quarters, immediately after the terms were delivered and the enemy had been given seventy-two hours in which to send his answer.

Few details of the terms have been a critical juncture in the history of Germany.

The revolution is seemingly rapidly spreading through the great industrial and maritime cities of Prussia. Essen, the site of the great Krupp munition works, is the latest place reported to be disaffected.

Prince Henry of Prussia, the em-peror's brother, who visited America in 1902, has fled from Kiel under fire from mutinous guards. Prince Maximilian of Baden, imperial chancellor, has resigned after taking action which brought about the interchange of notes between Berlin and Washington, which resulted in the

and Washington, which resulted in the dispatching of armistice delegates to ask terms of the allies.

Virtually all the North sea coast and part of the Baltic littoral is now in the hands of the revolutionists.

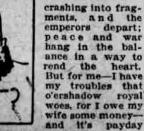

Not only has the German army been crushed in the war, but the whole structure of the German empire seems about to be enguifed.

Conditions in Austria are apparently

Conditions in Austria are apparently in a wild, chaotic condition. Little definite information as to conditions beria seems to be broken, according to a statement issued by the Japanese war office at Tokio.

Cooler, Says Billy 'Possum. Worlds are

BOL-

Republicans Concede Election of Dem-

RAISE PRICES HAISE PRICES

RAISE PRICES

Boston, Mass., Nov. 9.—All Boston newspapers selling at 1 cent today announced that hereafter the price would be 2 cents. The retail price of Sunday newspapers was advanced from 5 to 6

NUGENT WINS OUT

ocrat in Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 9.—Election of John F. Nugent, democrat, as United States senator over Frank R. Gooding, republican, by 500 votes is conceded today by republican newspapers of Idaho.

cents in Greater Boston and to 7 cents elsewhere in New England

GERMAN ENVOYS MAY ONLY HAVE TO RATIFY DECISION

Should Government Use Wireless in Advising Acceptance Allied Terms for Armistice. Admiral Sims Present With Foch at Interview Which Gave Foe Realization of Extent Defeat - Washington Confident.

Paris, Nov. 9.—(4:20 a.m.)—It is probable that the German reply to the allied terms for an armistice will be brought back by the same courier who took them to German headquarters at Spa yesterday. Under the circumstances it is believed the reply cannot be delivered before the middle of this afternoon at the very earliest.

The German government, however, may use the wireless, in which case the plenipotentiaries at Marshal Foch's headquarers will have only to ratify the decision thus conveyed to them.

Admiral Sims Was Present.

Paris, Nov. 9.—(4:15 a.m.)—Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, commander of the American naval forces in the war zone, was present at the first interview between Marshal Foch and the German armistice mission yesterday. It was learned during this morning that Admiral Sims is not taking part in the negotiations, but has gone to London.

Washington, Nov. 9.—So far as the American government was advised late today no word had been received by Marshal Foch from the German high command since the courier of the armistics envoys started back through the battle lines last night with the surrender terms and the ultimatum for their acceptance by 11 o'clock Monday morning.

In' Peaceful Chateau. Paris, Nov. 9.-(7:15 a.m.)-(I. N. S.) -The parliamentaires (armistice envoys), are conferring in a peaceful chateau near Senlis, the Echo de Paris stated today. (Senlis is thirty-two miles north ast of Paris.) ASSOCIATED PRESS REVIEW

(Associated Press.)

While the German government is considering the allied armistice terms, the British, French and American armies are carrying on successfully the task of freeing French soil from the invader.

On the north the British have captured the fortress of Maubeuge and driven the Germans back into Belgium in the region between Maubeuge and Mons. Along the Scheldt, in Belgium, where the British hold part of Tournai, Field Marshal Haig's men have the British hold part of Tournai, Field Marshal Haig's men have the grossed the river on a nine-mile front north of Tournai.

appointed them plenipotentiaries to take cognizance of the terms and eventually sign an armistice. Foch Read Terms Aloud.

Marshal Foch then read the term

They made a few observations, mere ly pointing out material difficulties standing in the way of carrying out some quite secondary clauses. Then Erzberger asked for a suspension of hostilities in the interests of humanity. This request Marshal Foch flatly re-

The delegates, having obtained peron to send a courier to Spa and communicate with that place by wireess, withdrew. Marshal Foch diately wrote an account of the and sent them by an aide to them at noon.

Personnel of Party. The German delegates are lodged in a country mansion at Rethondes, six miles east of Compiegne, and thirty miles from Marshal Foch's head-With the commander-in-chief at the with the commander-in-chief at the time of the interview were Maj.-Gen. Maxine Weygand, his assistant; Vice-Admiral Rosslyn Wemyss, first lord of the British admiralty, and Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, American representative. Rethondes, where the German armistice delegates are housed, is a small town on the north bank of the river Alsne, six miles east of Complegne. It is between the forest of Laigul and the forest of Compi gne.

Within a radius of thirty-three miles
Rethondes are the railroad towns f Clermont, Montdidier, La Fere, Laon and several others not so well known St. Quentin is between thirty and thirty-five miles to the north and Meaux is about the same distance south. Meaux was the scene of heavy thing in the German repulse from Paris in the first battle of the Marne. When the Germans drove outhward from Noyon last June they reached almost to Complegne before they were driven back. The French withdrew their lines north of the Alsne in the region of Complegne and the Germans at one time were within five miles of Rethondes. Today the German lines are sixty-five miles away.

Kaiser Presides.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Allied armistice terms were being discussed 'oday at German grand headquarters, with an answer required by Marshal Foch before 11 o'clock Monday morning, Paris time. The cour er carrying the text of the demands of the allied and text of the demands of the allied and American governments, according to unofficial reports, passed through the allied lines last night and was expected to reach the headquarters of the German high command early today.

Included among those attending the conferences of the German military chiefs was the kaiser, reports said. By many here the meetings were considered as the last in which Emperor William will appear as the supreme war lord.

Wait With Confidence.

Meanwhile the German armistice delegates, who yesterday were handed the terms and whose request for a provisional cessation of hostilities was denied by Marshal Foch, awaited the return of their courier. Even though text of the demands of the allied and American governments, according to unofficial reports, passed through the allied lines last night and was expected to reach the headquarters of the German high command early today. Included among those attending the conferences of the German military chiefs was the kaiser, reports said. By many here the meetings were considered as the last in which Emperor William will appear as the supreme war lord.

the decision of the German military lefs were made known at once, it was not considered possible that the courier could place the answer in the hands of the delegates before a late hour today.

Official Washington awaited the momentous result today with confidence.
The last state department lispatch told only of the meeting of the armistice delegates with Marsh-I Foch, but it was reiterated today there would be no delay in informing the nation as to the answer of the Germans once it is delivered.

Establish Positions on East Bank Over Wide Front. French Go Forward.

AMERICANS STILL GAINING

Strong Machine Gun Resistance Fails to Check Advance East of Meuse.

With the American Army on the Sedan Front, Nov. 9 .- The American army east of the Meuse continued to advance today despite strong machine gun resistance.

The Americans went ahead in this region both north and south of Danvillers. Along the line of the Meuse, the front from Sassey to Marlincourt last night was marked by artillery and machine gun fighting.

British Pushing East.

London, Nov. 9.—The British forces have captured the fortress of Mau-beuge, Field Marshal Haig announced today. South of Maubege the British are pushing eastward and are well beyond the Avesnes-Maubeuge road. Crossed River Scheldt.

British troops in Flanders have crossed the river Scheldt on a wide front north of Tournai and have es-tablished themselves on the east bank according to Field Marsial Haig's nouncement today. The state:nent

"The fortress of Maubeuge has been captured by the guards and 62nd division. We have made good progress outh of that town and are well cast of the Avesnes-Maubeuge road.

(Section missing.)
"North of Tournal we are estab-lished on the east bank of the Scheldt

(These two towns are about nine miles apart.)

Maubeuge was the last important wrench fortress in the hands of the Germans. Before the war it was considered a fortress of the first ass and munded the Namur Charless. guarded the Namur-Charleroi "oute into France by the way of the Sambre

The town is situated on both banks of the Sambre river and was founded in the seventh century. Several famous 1800 are in close proximity to Mau-

Maubeuge was taken by the Germans in the autumn of 1914 after heaving thing with the British and French The town is within a few miles of th is thirteen miles northward by rail.